SUMMER 2009 – A BUSY TIME IN SÄVAR

SÄVARÅDALEN (SÄVAR RIVER VALLEY)

SävarådaLEN is a vivid valley district filled with scenic sights and other points of interest, framed by lush nature and the river Sävarån. Here you can find family-friendly bathing places, many campfire spots, fishing waters, as well as trails for hiking, riding and canoeing. The valley has a rich animal life, with a flourishing population of beavers.

THE TOWN OF SÄVAR

The town of Sävar offers good service, historical experiences and many other activities during the summer months. The isle Holmön with its musical arrangements is an unique part of our cultural heritage – always worth a visit.

THE LAST BATTLE

On August 19, 2009, between 2 and 4 pm, the Last Battle will be reenacted. Troops will be acting in the field and the Swedish and Russian command will be depicted in short theater scenes.

CAFÉ 1809

Anyone looking for more information on the war of 1809 and the battle at Sävar should make a visit to the Summer Café in Sävar Hembygdsgård. The Summer Café is open Monday–Friday during the summer. Here you can find freshly baked bread and souvenirs for sale as well as opportunity for a guided tour for larger groups (10 people or more). Hembygdsgården can be found in the center of Sävar, next to the church.

Take the regular guided tour or the GPS-guided tour, which will let you walk at your own pace.
